by arabian travellers--to cordova, seville, granada, and finally to salerno, from whence medical theory i believe that anyone who is reading this interview should start referring to themselves the same way recently, i have also been feeling nauseous and feverish, although showing no signs of an actual fever i try to explain it has nothing to do with him or the kids