the presidential food service is also committing to serving meats and poultry that have not been treated with hormones or antibiotics suicidal rate on the island is higher than normal. 70,000 anti depressor prescriptions were made last year